BAKING

what is it tho?!

If you're looking for a great way to get your team engaged with your business's charitable donation process, we can organise you a spot on our roster - your team will bake some treats that we'll distribute to our recipient organisations in your community.

Your team can be as involved as feels right with the process through to delivery - this will be determined in conversation with the recipient organisation and the chapter committee.

who are we? great question.

Good Bitches Baking is a network of more than 3,000 volunteers around Aotearoa who bake treats for people having a tough time, distributed by more than 430 organisations.

love it! what next?

It takes some behind-the-scenes organising to get you onto our roster, so please do plan to get in touch at least 8 weeks ahead of time, especially if you have a particular date in mind to mark like your business birthday or Christmas or a staff milestone.

what does it cost?

To help us keep the ovens on and the beaters beating,

- for up to 10 people, we ask for a minimum contribution of $100
- for 10 or more people, we ask for a minimum contribution of $200
